
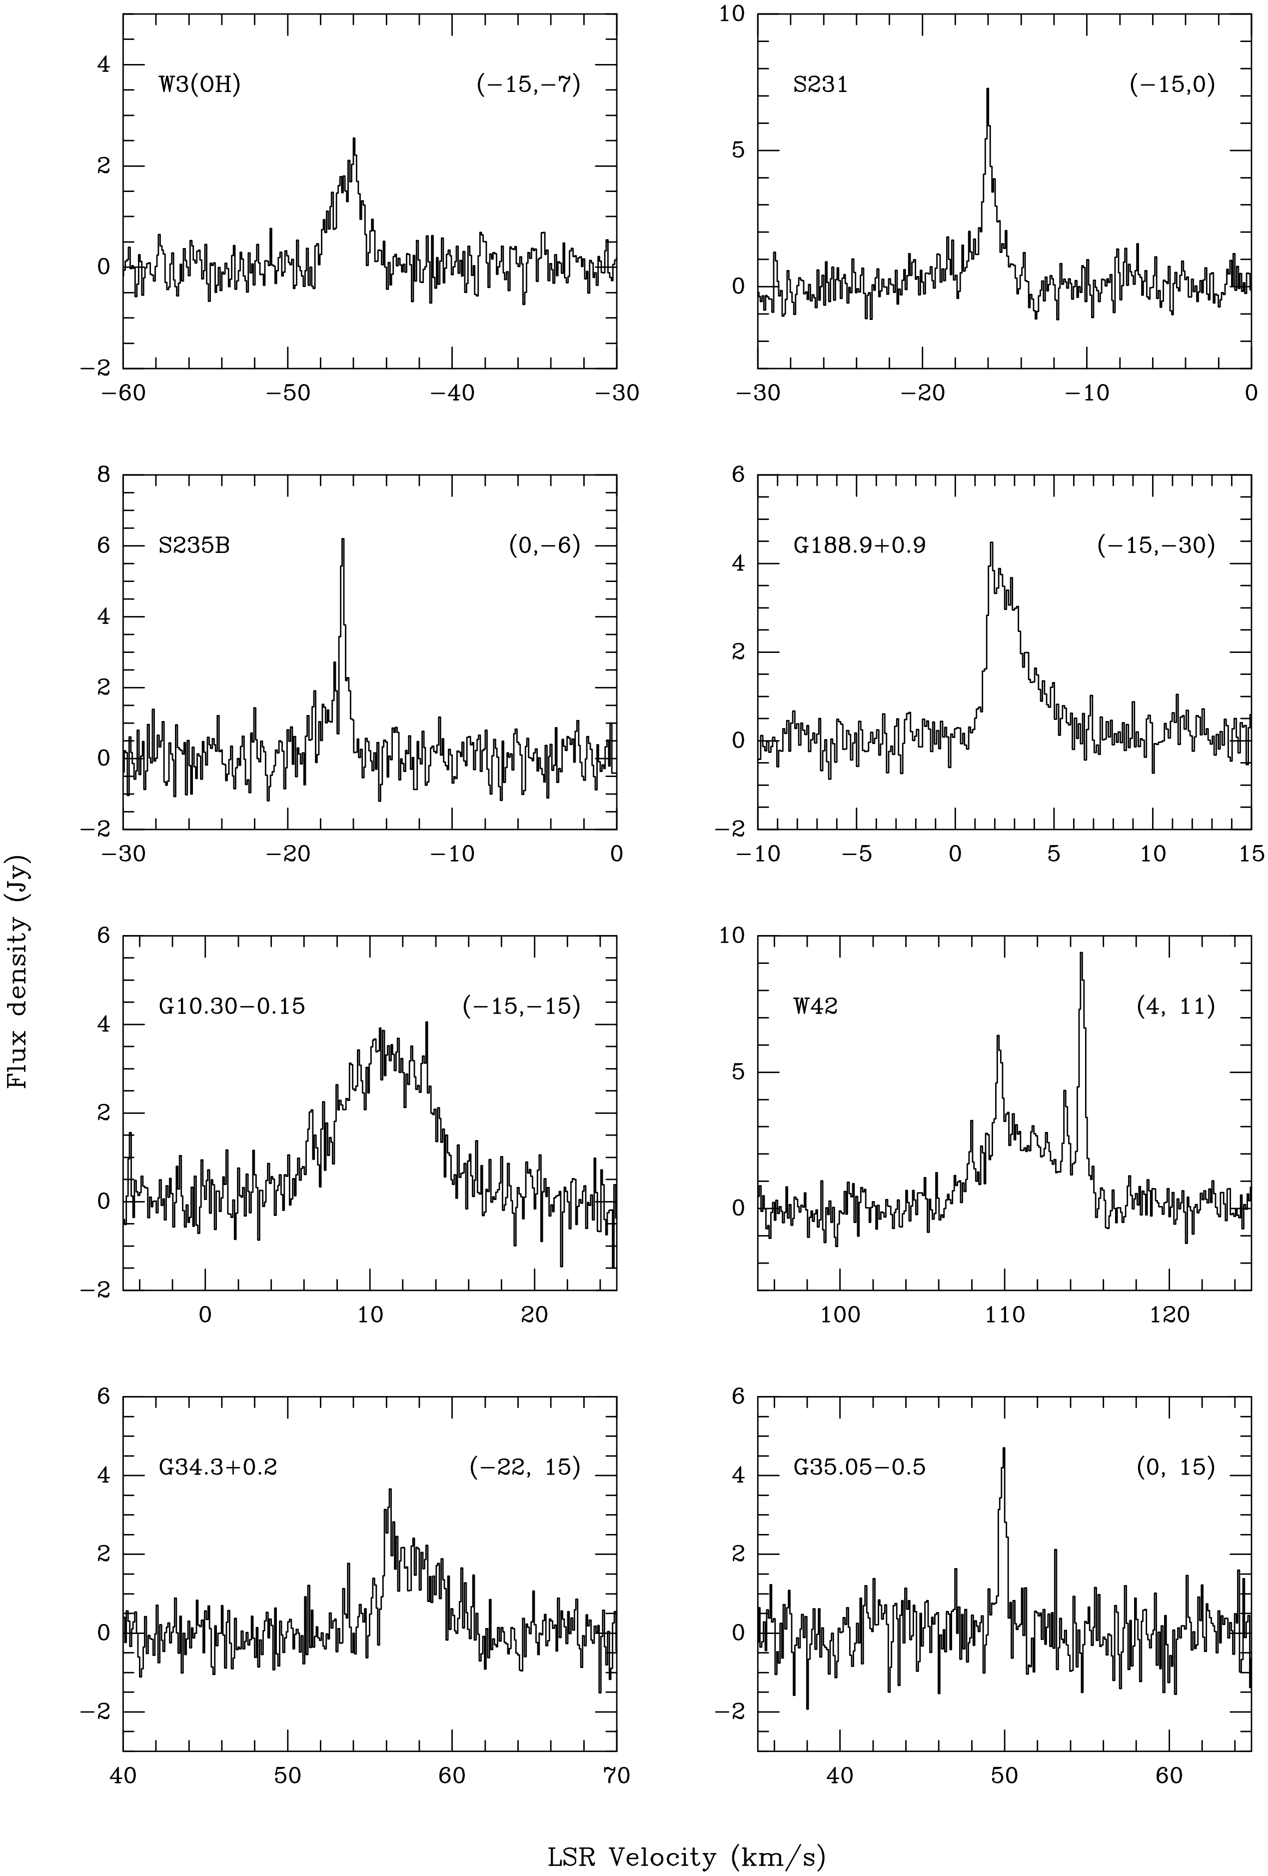

Figure 11: 36 GHz methanol spectra towards the other sources where narrow features have been detected. The numbers in parenthesis are the position offsets in right ascension and declination in arseconds (with respect to the positions given in Table 1).